STATEMENT OF FEDERAL TAX STATUS

Temple of Infinite Abundance

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Temple of Infinite Abundance is a Texas nonprofit religious corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, and educational purposes within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3). Its governing instruments prohibit private inurement and political-campaign intervention, restrict legislative activity, and permanently dedicate its assets to exempt purposes.

The executed bylaws identify the Temple as a church and establish its creed, worship, ecclesiastical governance, spiritual offices, religious instruction, charitable service, and recordkeeping. Contributions are eligible for deduction to the extent provided by section 170 and subject to the contributor's applicable limitations and substantiation requirements.

AUTOMATIC EXEMPTION FOR CHURCHES

Internal Revenue Code section 508(c)(1)(A) excepts churches, their integrated auxiliaries, and conventions or associations of churches from the notice requirement imposed by section 508(a). A church that meets the requirements of section 501(c)(3) is therefore not required to file Form 1023 or obtain an Internal Revenue Service determination letter as a condition of federal tax exemption.

The Internal Revenue Service states that qualifying churches are automatically considered tax exempt and that donors may claim charitable deductions even when the church has neither sought nor received an IRS determination letter. The Temple claims this automatic exemption and maintains the corresponding organizational, governance, religious-activity, and financial records. A voluntary IRS determination letter is pending; no letter has yet been issued or included.
